

9th July 2018

Dear Parents, Carers,

On behalf of Skipton Girls' Local Governing Body, I am writing to inform you of our Senior Leadership arrangements with effect from September 2018.

Mrs Jenn Plews, NSAT CEO will remain as Executive Headteacher of SGHS, with an office base within the school. In September, NSAT will comprise of six schools; four primary and two secondary schools, geographically located in three NSAT Hub areas; Craven, Harrogate, and Keighley. Northern Star Academies Trust (NSAT) is highly ambitious to support school improvement and is working in close partnership with Craven schools who face challenging circumstances.

We are very pleased that Mrs Gill Fisher and Mrs Kate Walter will undertake the role of Head of Academy (Acting) until the appointment of a substantive Head of Academy. It is our intention to advertise the post of substantive Head of Academy early in the academic year (2018 - 2019).

Our Acting Heads of Academy will continue to be ably supported by the following colleagues:

Mrs Fiona McMillan: Associate Deputy Headteacher

Mr James Hoyle and Mrs Lucy Greenwood: Assistant Headteachers

Mrs Cindy Haymes: Data Manager and Mrs Joanne Busfield: Business Manager

In addition, Mr Tom Wolstenholme will continue to lead our highly successful School Centred Initial Teacher Training (SCITT)

Further information about our Senior Leaders roles and responsibilities can be found on our school website.

Please be assured that our interim Senior Leadership will in no way detract from the work undertaken at SGHS and the achievement of our vision and values and continued school development.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Howard Cutler
Chair of Governors

Mrs Jenn Plews
CEO /Executive Headteacher
