

Dear Parents/Carers

Data and Examinations 2020 -21 - Key Dates for Year 10

Students have now begun to settle into their GCSE courses as they commence Key Stage 4 study over the next two years. At the end of this year they will sit a GCSE in Religious Studies and the rest of their GCSEs will be sat at the end of Year 11.

Below you will find a list of key assessment and reporting dates for this academic year. Students will receive three written reports during the year and a parents' evening to provide information on the progress they are making. Teachers will be assessing students' knowledge and skills during the year and will use this information to report a current prediction of what they believe each student will achieve at the end of Year 11 given their recent performance. They will also report on students' commitment to learning.

Please find below key dates for Year 10 for the coming academic year:
